FAMILY PRACTICE PHYSICIAN

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

THE POSITION

Our client, Vera Whole Health (Vera), is seeking a primary care physician to serve as a Clinician for a new clinic located in the South Lake Union Area of Seattle. The physician will care for employees of a world renown non-profit foundation.

This position is responsible for providing health care services to patients (employees) in an outpatient primary care clinic setting. The position requires the ability to perform preventative and minor acute medical services, provide effective one-on-one coaching regarding behavior change and partner with patients to support their health needs and reach wellness goals.

- Manage only 10-15 patients per day allowing ample time with patients
- Minimal call requirement
- Patient care incentives based on performance, outcome measures, and client engagement
- Opportunity to lead his/her own team with support by a Nurse Practitioner alongside a structured system that will assist in the overall program and promote behavior change.

This position is ideal for a physician who has been looking for a chance to make meaningful impact on the lives of people and shape the future of health care. The physician will have the time, the tools and the support to improve patient health without the reimbursement constraints associated with traditional medical practice.

Vera provides leading edge tools, including: health risk assessments, remote monitoring software for high risk patients, a 24-hour nurse hotline, an electronic medical record, claims analysis and a unique rewards program to incentivize

CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE WILL POSSESS THE FOLLOWING TRAITS:

- Practices evidence-based medicine and follows clinical protocols and guidelines
- Thorough understanding and commitment to the principle of wellness and prevention, and serve as a role model
- Strong organization skills and ability to manage a large volume of follow up visits, phone calls and coordination of care with community providers
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills with the ability to connect, empathize and listen to patients and staff
- Capability to be self-directed, work independently and within a team
- Strong desire to actively promote client engagement and clinic success, and willingness to engage with the employer and its employees to promote the clinic and encourage participation.

COMPENSATION

Vera Whole Health will provide a competitive base salary and full range of benefits, including malpractice insurance, CME, paid time off and retirement plan.

The Vera Whole Health and Activate Healthcare partnership is born from an unbending desire to improve health by helping people change unhealthy behavior. This belief and the primary care model that Activate Healthcare has built is resulting in companies saving over 25% in direct health claims costs.

SEATTLE

The City of Seattle is located in the State of Washington on Puget Sound, 113 miles from the US-Canadian border. Seattle is a commercial, cultural and advanced technology hub of the US Pacific Northwest and a major port city for trans-Pacific and European travel and trade. Surrounded by mountains and water, the Greater Seattle area features picture-perfect views and abundant recreational opportunities year-round.

The Vera Whole Health Clinic is housed in South Lake Union one of the fastest growing and most vibrant neighborhoods in Seattle. As the city's downtown lakefront neighborhood, it's a place where cutting-edge companies co-exist with urban lofts, one-of-kind retail experiences mix with world-class parks and open spaces.

South Lake Union sits right at the geographical center of the city of Seattle, Washington, making it a convenient place to get to and from. Bike lanes, wide sidewalks and the city's first modern streetcar put South Lake Unionites within easy reach of the downtown core and its connections to the region's new light rail system.

Another advantage to calling South Lake Union home is that most of the buildings are new and LEED-certified, so you'll be living in healthy, sustainably designed spaces. Combine that with pedestrian-centric streets, plenty of parks, and a truly usable public transportation system, and it all adds up to the color green.

Additionally, public art is one of the great treasures of South Lake Union. Throughout the neighborhood, there's inspiring, diverse and eye-catching artwork on display by several acclaimed local artists. Also, new to the neighborhood is the Museum of History and Industry (MOHAI), taking up residence at the Naval Reserve Armory at Lake Union Park.

All these factors are a recipe that yields an exceptionally livable, enjoyable, sustainable, hospitable place to call home.

CULTURE AND RECREATION

The Seattle metropolitan area offers residents a vast array of recreational and cultural venues.

- Seattle's mild, temperate marine climate allows year-round outdoor recreation, including walking, cycling, hiking, skiing, snowboarding, kayaking, rock climbing, motor boating, sailing, team sports, and swimming. In town, many people walk around Green Lake, through the forests and along the bluffs and beaches of 535-acre Discovery Park (the largest park in the city) in Magnolia, along the shores of Myrtle Edwards Park on the Downtown waterfront, along the shoreline of Lake Washington at Seward Park, along Alki Beach in West Seattle, or along the Burke-Gilman Trail. Also popular are hikes and skiing in the nearby Cascade or Olympic Mountains and kayaking and sailing in the waters of Puget Sound.
- Seattle has been a regional center for the performing arts for many years. The century-old Seattle Symphony Orchestra is among the worlds most recorded and performs primarily at Benaroya Hall. The Seattle Opera and Pacific Northwest Ballet, perform at McCaw Hall. Additionally, the Seattle Youth Symphony Orchestras (YSO) is the largest symphonic youth organization in the United States.
- Seattle has three major professional sports teams: The National Football League's Seattle Seahawks, Major League Baseball's Seattle Mariners, and Major League Soccer's Seattle Sounders FC.
- The city is made up of neighborhoods and surrounding communities that mingle amid 500-foot hills, lakes and waterways - and their personalities are as diverse as the landscape. From free-spirited Fremont to stately Queen Anne Hill, the Scandinavian charm of Ballard to the melting pot of cultures in Southeast Seattle. These neighborhoods are easily accessible from the city's center via public transportation, rental car, taxi, tour boat, water taxi or, in some cases, sea kayak.
- Among Seattle's prominent annual fairs and festivals are the 24-day Seattle International Film Festival, Northwest Folklife over the Memorial Day weekend and numerous Seafair events throughout July and August.
- While Seattle is known for its pronounced rainy season and frequent cloudy weather, the average annual rainfall is actually less than that of many other cities in the United States, including New York and Atlanta.
